TAMMY TURNER
A young Picasso

Tammy Turner isn't a normal school girl. She loves Art and she's a very good artist. On weekdays, she gets up at 6 o'clock and paints pictures. At 7:30 she has a shower and has her breakfast. Then she goes to school. Art is her favourite subject, of course. She gets home at 4:30 and does her homework. In the evenings after dinner, she paints again!

At the weekend it's different. 'Every Saturday, I visit galleries and on Sundays, I watch TV or make pictures and designs on my computer.' Her Art teacher says: 'She's amazing! She's even got paintings in the local art gallery.'

B. Read again and write T for True or F for False.

- Tammy gets up at 7:30 on Mondays.
- Tammy's favourite subject is Art.
- Tammy paints in the morning and in the evening.
- Tammy goes to galleries on weekdays.
- Tammy's teacher likes her paintings.

Match the pictures with the household chores. Then listen and check your answers.

- do the washing clean the windows tidy my room take the dog for a walk wash the car Hoover do the washing-up take out the rubbish

2 Read

A. Look at the pictures. Who do you think helps out at home? Listen, read and check your answers.

HOUSEWORK CRAZY

Angelo Gibson always helps out at home. He helps with the washing, takes out the rubbish and tidies his room every day. And guess what! He likes it! 'I don't mind housework. It's great fun! My favourite chore is the windows. I clean the windows in our flat every week,' he says. His friends think he's crazy, but his mum doesn't. Angelo is a real angel, she says.

Megan Roberts plays computer games, reads magazines, watches TV and does her homework every day. But she doesn't want to do housework. 'My room is often a mess but I like it like that. Anyway, I'm usually very busy. I haven't got time for chores,' she says. But her mum doesn't believe her. 'She's just lazy. You see, we live in a big house and we've got a lot of housework,' Megan's mum says. They argue about housework every day and in the end, they always do it together.

OR JUST LAZY?

B. Read again and answer the questions.

- Who thinks housework is fun?
- What does Angelo do every day?
- What does Megan do every day?
- What do Angelo's friends think of Angelo?

A. Look at the pictures. What can you guess about Emma's life? Listen, read and check your answers.

Emma Lewis

The life of a typical British teenager

On weekdays...

I go to school from nine till three, and in the evenings, I hang out with friends or watch telly.

Dinner

is usually at seven, and we eat a lot of different kinds of food like Indian, Chinese, Italian. I like fish and chips, too, but we don't often have that.

At the weekend...

On Saturdays, I go shopping with my mates or I go to a football match with my brother. He's a big Chelsea fan.

On Saturday nights,

I usually go to a friend's house or my mates and I sometimes go to a concert. Coldplay are my favourite band at the moment, but I like the Arctic Monkeys, too.

On Sundays,

I usually stay at home. My nan usually visits, and we have Sunday dinner together as a family. On Sunday evening, I do my homework and get ready for school on Monday.

Glossary

telly = TV
Eastenders = popular TV soap opera mate = friend
nan = grandmother
Sunday dinner = lunch on Sunday

Project

Write a blog!
Write a short blog about what life is like for teenagers in your country. Talk about what they do during the week and what they do at weekends.

I The bonds between us

Read

- A. Discuss.
- Which famous people do you follow in the media?
 - Is there anything special about them? What?
 - Are they the most important people in your life? Why / Why not?

- B. Read the text quickly. Which sentence best summarises the text? Choose 1, 2, 3 or 4.
1. People who follow celebrities' lives are not reliable.
 2. The real stars are the people who are changing the world.
 3. The people who are important to us are those that care about us.
 4. People who are famous today may not be famous tomorrow.

- Tip:
- Read the text, questions and options carefully.
 - Choose the option which answers the question or completes the sentence correctly according to what is mentioned in the text.
 - Be careful! The meaning of the correct option should be reflected in the text, but NOT necessarily with the same words or phrasing.

People who matter

Lionel Messi

Every day we see and hear all around us the names of important people. These people are the success stories of the moment. The media keep telling us about them. Everybody seems to be talking about them. We sing along to tunes by popular artists, we read books by bestselling authors and talk about the latest TV series with our friends. We watch films with Academy Award-winning actors and we cheer champion athletes.

'How come you don't know Lionel Messi?' we ask, shocked that some people have no idea what's going on around them. 'Which planet are you from?' we ask, making fun of them.

Some of us admire celebrities so much that we hang their posters on our walls. Sometimes the posters change as quickly as the latest fashions in clothes. Our favourite magazines feature pictures of new stars as the older ones on our walls fade away. We lose interest in yesterday's big names because we are more excited by what is new. We always seem to think that new means better.

But then there are still legends (some living, some not) whose names will be around for years to come. They may not be the big story of the moment, but without a doubt history will remember them. We learn of people like physicist Stephen Hawking and others whose accomplishments are bringing about change in the world today. We appreciate the all-time classics as we get our first taste of authors like F. Scott Fitzgerald, Charles Dickens and Oscar Wilde, to name but a few. We are fascinated by the power of their writing, which has truly stood the test of time.

'Oh, so it was Alexander Fleming who discovered penicillin!' we exclaim, surprised we didn't already know this.

There really are so many distinguished people with brilliant achievements, but we soon forget who they are. Can you name the five wealthiest people of all time? Can you name ten people who have won the Nobel prize? Do you remember anyone who won a gold medal in the most recent Olympic Games? How about in the ones before that?

Alexander Fleming

These people may have the most money or awards, but how easily do we remember their names? Even those people who are champions in their fields are soon forgotten.

To recognise the people that truly matter, see if you can answer the following questions: How fast can you name three friends who helped you when you needed them? Can you think of any people who make you feel special when you are sad? Which teachers help you at school? Can you name five people you enjoy spending time with? Are there any heroes that inspire you? You'll soon see the names you come up with are the names of the people most familiar to you. They are the names you always remember. The people whose names you can always remember are the most important people in the world to you.

The people who make a difference in your life are not necessarily the ones with the most certificates and prizes. No, the people who matter the most are the ones you need most in your life. Their names may not be on everyone's lips, but they are certainly the ones that care. They are the ones that have faith in you and the people you belong with.

So, who matters most to you?

C. Read the text and answer the questions that follow. Choose a, b, c or d.

1. The 'success stories' mentioned in the first paragraph are
 - a. TV and radio programmes about celebrities.
 - b. people that lots of people are talking about.
 - c. books about famous people.
 - d. the people we know the most about.
2. According to the text, we lose interest in older stars when
 - a. they change the style of clothes they wear too quickly.
 - b. it becomes more difficult to see them.
 - c. new ones appear.
 - d. they've been around for years.
3. If somebody is a legend, he/she
 - a. is remembered for his/her accomplishments years later.
 - b. has the ability to attract attention.
 - c. has the talent to achieve things that others cannot.
 - d. has the strength to fight for his/her beliefs.
4. Why does the writer ask us to name people who are champions in their fields?
 - a. to test our general knowledge
 - b. to remind us who the people with brilliant achievements are
 - c. to prove that people who have achieved fame are not remembered for long
 - d. to prove that those distinguished people are not necessarily the wealthiest
5. What point is the writer trying to make in paragraph 8?
 - a. The speed at which you answer the questions is important.
 - b. In actual fact, you don't have many friends.
 - c. There are a lot of people who make you feel special.
 - d. You are not likely to forget the names of the people that count.
6. According to the writer, the people that really matter are
 - a. the wealthiest and most famous.
 - b. those that help us the most.
 - c. those that change the world with their achievements.
 - d. those that believe in us.

D. Match the highlighted words/phrases in the text with their meanings.

1. make you want to achieve something: _____
2. very successful and respected: _____
3. shout in praise or support: _____
4. lose colour and brightness: _____
5. very interested in and excited about something: _____
6. be/do something important: _____

Write A descriptive article

A. Discuss.
 • Why is friendship so important?
 • What do you like most about your best friend?
 • How do you spend your time together?

My Best Friend

Tell us about your best friend – how long you have known him/her, what sort of person he/she is, and what makes your friendship so special. The best articles will be published in next month's issue.

C. Now read the description below.

Joy in my life!

Joy and I have been best friends since kindergarten. We got along very well when the teacher seated us next to each other. Soon, we were like two peas in a pod, sharing secrets and swapping lunch.

What I like most about Joy are her calm blue eyes, her warm and friendly smile, and her kind personality. She has always been a trustworthy and reliable friend who has stood by me no matter what.

People wonder why we are friends, but the beauty of our friendship is that we complement each other. Joy helps me see another part of life. She is shy and I am extrovert. She advises me not to be such a risk-taker and I drag her to sports games. We are good at different subjects, so we can help each other with our homework.

I don't know what I would do without Joy. She is like a sister to me. We will be best friends forever!

F. Look at the adjective/noun collocations below and complete the text.

pale/dark/fair/freckled - complexion slim/athletic/average/plump - build facial/strong/unique - features trendy/casual/classy/sporty - style

The first thing you notice when you meet Shane, from Ireland, is his thick red hair and (1) _____ complexion. It is almost as if his skin is starting to go the same colour as his hair. His (2) _____ features are small and delicate and you can barely see his hazel eyes that almost close when he smiles. You also can't help but notice his (3) _____ style, which reflects his love for sports. You won't find Shane wearing anything but trackuits and trainers. His (4) _____ build is the result of all the hours he spends training. He is definitely one of the most dedicated and ambitious athletes I have ever met.

G. Match the adjectives to the phrases.

- 1. supportive a. never lets you down
- 2. helpful b. never tells a lie
- 3. dependable c. always thinks of others
- 4. thoughtful d. always happy
- 5. truthful e. always lends you a hand

1. He's/She's very helpful. _____
2. He's/She's very dependable. _____
3. He's/She's very thoughtful. _____
4. He's/She's very truthful. _____
5. He's/She's very cheerful. _____

WRITING TASK
 Now write an article based on the topic in activity B. Try to use a variety of vocabulary and expressions you have learnt in this module. (240-250 words)

PLAN

When you are writing a description of a friend, follow the plan below.

- INTRODUCTION
 - Give some general information about the person. (e.g. name, how long you have known them, when, how, where you met them)
- MAIN PART (2 paragraphs)
 - Describe the person. (e.g. appearance, personality, likes/dislikes, habits, etc.)
 - Say what has made the friendship special.
 - Say how you spend your time together.
- CONCLUSION
 - Make a general comment about the person and say how you feel about your friendship.

USEFUL VOCABULARY/EXPRESSIONS

I've known... since 2012/we were at school.
 I've known him/her for about/over six years.
 The best thing about... is that his/her...
 The thing I like most about... is...
 My favourite thing about... is...
 However, he/she can sometimes be...
 His/Her only fault is that...

- When writing a descriptive article, you want to catch the reader's attention and interest them. You should:
- use a catchy title.
 - think about the purpose of the article and who will read it in order to write in an appropriate style (formal, semi-formal or informal).
 - organise the article in paragraphs which cover different aspects of the topic, with examples where possible.
 - use lively, colourful language (e.g. a variety of adjectives, phrases, expressions, direct and indirect questions).
 - comment on the topic or give your opinion.

Through thick and thin

We have many different kinds of relationships at school with our teachers and classmates, at work with our (1) ____, at home with our families and socially with our friends. No two relationships are identical and some of them develop into 'love-hate relationships'. Take 'friendship', for example. At times we may get along very well with our friends, but at other times we (2) ____ over small and unimportant things, which sometimes leads to bigger problems. Or we might be (3) ____ of one of our classmates or a sibling, and that can poison our relationship with them. It is said that these kinds of negative (4) ____ are actually linked to self-confidence. When we are on good terms with ourselves, we feel optimistic about things, and our relationships with those around us go from strength to strength. But often, at the first sign of trouble, we get disappointed and become (5) ____. It can be difficult to stop this happening. (6) ____ each other through difficulties. For relationships to be successful, we need to (7) ____ each other. Trying to be positive when times are difficult is one of the best ways for a relationship to stand the (8) ____ of time. So next time you fall out with a friend, your parents or a co-worker, keep this advice in mind!

KEY

Suggested answers

Where do you usually spend your holidays?
I go camping with my family every year. We go to a beautiful campsite in a large olive grove, right near a huge sandy beach. The site has lots of facilities and a restaurant, so we don't have to cook. I love taking my sleeping bag onto the beach at night and watching the stars.

or:
We always go abroad. Sometimes we go to Germany to visit my cousins and sometimes we make a reservation at a hotel for a week in another country. This year we are planning to go to Italy to visit Florence, Venice and Rome. I can't wait.

What do you like to do when on holiday?
I like to get up whenever I want, have a late breakfast and then go out for a meal. I also love going to museums and seeing the sights. What is more, I enjoy shopping for souvenirs.

What is there for tourists to see and do in the area where you live?
There are tons of things for tourists to do where I live. There are ancient sites for anybody interested in archaeology or history. We have great beaches in the area and also beautiful mountains if you get tired of the sea. There are some really picturesque villages nearby as well as souvenir shops.

B. Aim: to give Ss practice in reading for gist

- Draw Ss' attention to the pictures and ask them what they can see (a tent in the mountains, two boys, someone with a backpack sitting and looking at an aeroplane, a man reading, people at the zoo, an aquarium, a picnic).
- Draw Ss' attention to the title of the text and have them relate it to the content of the pictures.
- Ask Ss to tell you what they think the text will be about, but don't reveal the answer (staycation: a vacation (AmE) during which one stays at home and which might involve short trips to local places of interest).
- Ask Ss to read the options carefully. Explain any unknown words.

Tip!

When you are presented with a text from which sentences have been removed:

- first read the whole text in order to get an overall idea.
- read the sentences before and after the gap and the sentences that have been removed from the text, looking for clues in both the text and the sentences. The correct option must logically complete the writer's meaning and grammatically fit the gap.
- pay attention to sentence linkers (Moreover, on the other hand, as a result, after, etc.) as well as reference items (he, it, this, there, etc.) and identify what they refer to. This will help you understand the text.

 - What do you like to do when on holiday?
 - What is there for tourists to see and do in the area where you live?
- B. Read the text quickly without paying attention to the missing sentences. What is the purpose of this article?
1. to criticise a type of holiday
 2. to offer advice on a holiday abroad
 3. to show what effects holidays can have on our health
 4. to contrast one type of holiday with another

No vacation?

Try a staycation!

Remember last year's holiday? The whole family was in a last-minute panic. 'Where are the tickets? Where are the passports?' screams Mum. 'You can't take that on the plane with you, Jody!' shouts Dad. 'Jody, did you pack your sunscreen?' 'Hurry up, Jody! The taxi's here!' Then came the stressful ride to the airport ('We're late! We'll miss the flight!'), where you heard your flight was delayed. You then spent hours on end waiting in the departure lounge before you finally got on the plane and took off.

1. When you finally got to your destination, the hotel wasn't anything like in the brochure – the rooms didn't have a sea view, the beach was a two-mile walk away and there was nothing to do for anyone under the age of twenty-five. Boring. The whole thing drove you up the wall. You're probably thinking it will be the same again this year. Well, it doesn't have to be.

Send Mum and Dad off by themselves (Home Alone? Yes!) and try a staycation. What, I hear you ask, is a staycation? It's a made-up word that comes from combining two distinct words, stay and vacation. 2. For many people, especially those affected by the credit crunch, it's a cheap – and relaxing – alternative to a holiday abroad.

There is a whole range of things you can do locally which can fill your day and keep you entertained. 3. There are both fun and interesting things to do outside the house – the What's on in town section of the newspaper has a full listing of fun events – and things you can do at home: listen to music, sleep in, or even just grab the remote control and turn into a couch potato.

When I had to spend last summer in the city, I split up my holiday time into three different categories, and assigned each category with a few activities. First of all, I was determined to relax and, for me, that means anything to do with water. So, I organised an all-day picnic and up-to-date texts and topics

A Jane Markham used to work for the Department for Education in England, tracking down truants, children who skip school on a regular basis, and trying to convince them to go back. There came a point in my life when I really needed a change. So, she packed her bags, grabbed her friend Pauline and headed for Spain. The two of us had been there the previous summer and we really liked the sunny warmth. Plus, we knew it would be extremely easy to get a job; English teachers were in demand. We planned on staying for a couple of years, just to experience something different. Jane and Pauline then rented a flat and got a job at an English language school. Meeting someone was not a long way away. Jane married Pablo, a restaurant owner, and they now have four kids. I've been living here for 25 years and Spain is my home now. The only thing I miss is the scenery, the English countryside, how you can just walk out your front door and in less than 15 minutes be in a park or green field. But life here is good. I love it.

B Neil Bremer and his wife, Barbara, are a retired couple currently living in Morocco. Their experience proves it's never too late to go after the things that make you happy in life. 'Our kids paid for us to have a holiday in North Africa on the occasion of our 40th wedding anniversary. It was the first time we had left the country. We travelled from Morocco to Algeria, Tunisia, and Egypt and we were absolutely amazed. The sights, the smells, the scenery, it was all new and exciting, a completely different world.' The couple were so enchanted that they kept putting off the date of their departure back home, until a year passed without them noticing. It became apparent they weren't going to leave anytime soon. They have now settled in happily in their new house in Morocco, where their kids visit them every summer. 'Our pension money lasts so much longer here; we live very comfortably. And we love the people here. We have made many new friends.'

C Jason Firth had just finished university when he went on a working holiday in Dubai, at an architectural company. 'The city is full of construction activities; they are building new luxury flats, hotels and company headquarters on every corner.' The firm needed architects for that summer to carry out the work. Jason found the opportunity highly enticing, although it was so far away from his home in Wales. The company found him to be hard-working, imaginative and practical, and so when his term was coming to an end, they offered him a permanent position. 'Saying yes was the best thing I could have done. The amount of work needed to be done always keeps you on the go, always trying to do better, and I love the feeling of accomplishment. Plus, the money is great. If I ever decide to go back, I know I will have secured my economic future.'

D Leon Alvarez had no idea how his life would change as he set off for his holiday from Spain to Argentina with his two best friends. All was going well until Leon's passport and other important documents got stolen. 'It was a horrible feeling at first. This sense of helplessness makes you feel completely lost.' The authorities did the best they could to issue a new passport, but it took a long time and Leon was told he would have to stay in the country for a couple of months. In an unexpected gesture of self-sacrifice, his two friends offered to stay with him, instead of going back to Spain and their normal lives. 'I turned from helpless to crazy enthusiastic. We tried to make the most of this unfortunate event and decided to look for a job to help with our living costs. We were all cooks in Spain and, fortunately, a restaurant owner took all three of us on a full-time salary. The three friends ended up enjoying learning the new cuisine and introducing elements of Spanish cooking into the menu. By the time my passport was ready, we agreed we liked working together and opened our own restaurant in Buenos Aires.'

- Stayed in the country because of a negative event? 2
- enjoy(s) the natural beauty of their home country? 3
- talk(s) about returning to their home country? 4
- set up a business in the country they moved to? 5
- had a different job back home? 6
- didn't stay in the country as an extension to their holiday? 7
- doesn't / don't have to work? 8
- experienced a radical change in their attitude? 9
- spend(s) less money than they would in their home country? 10

Tip

- When matching questions with short texts, scan each text and look for the specific information referred to in each question.
- Find the part of the text which correctly answers the question.
- Be careful! Don't choose a text just because the vocabulary or phrasing in the text is similar to that of the question.

1 Going places

Write A descriptive article

- A. Discuss.
- Have you and your family ever booked a holiday or gone on a trip because of an article you read about a specific place?
 - What made you want to visit that place?

B. Read the rubric below and underline the key words / phrases in it. What are you asked to write? Who is going to read it?

You have seen this announcement in an international magazine.

Been there, done that!
Tell us about a place you have only visited once and would like to go back to.
The best article will win free tickets to visit that destination again.

Write the article (140-190 words).

C. Now read the article below. What aspects of the place does the writer refer to?

Salzburg:

the heart of Europe that captured my own

Heilbrunn Palace

Mirabell Palace

You probably associate Austria with schmeitzel and skiing, but have you ever heard of Salzburg, the birthplace of Mozart and setting for the famous film The Sound of Music?

In my second year at university, I won a ticket for a five-day trip to Salzburg, an old picturesque city in central-west Austria. The city is built on the banks of the Salzach River and is encircled by two mountains, which act as its lungs. The architecture of the city is absolutely fascinating and invites you to imagine what living there was like a few hundred years ago.

Salzburg has one of the biggest medieval castles in Europe, the Hohensalzburg Castle, where you can still see instruments of torture used back in the Middle Ages. You definitely mustn't miss Mirabell Palace and Gardens, with their exquisite statues from 1730. The Mozart Museum is a must, and not far from it is the Mozart chocolate shop where you can buy treats to munch on as you wander around the Salzburg Zoo, home to 140 different species of animals.

If you take a ride up the river, you come to Heilbrunn Palace, famous for its garden water games. I had an amazing time there and my personal favourite was the dining table mechanism which started squirting water from our seats when we least expected it.

Five days are not enough to experience the age-old wonders of this fairy-tale city. I am just one of the many visitors who would love to go back and, once you've been there, you will know what I meant!

practical tips helping students to cope with examination tasks

D. Each of the phrases below corresponds to the function of one of the paragraphs in the article. Write the numbers of the paragraphs (1-5) in the circles.

- In this paragraph, the writer:
- a. explains what one can see and do in the area.
 - b. makes a general statement summing up his/her opinion.
 - c. uses a rhetorical question to attract the reader's attention and introduce the topic.
 - d. gives a description of impressive scenery.
 - e. describes a specific occasion during his/her visit and his/her feelings.

E. Underline all the adjectives and adverbs in the article. Then choose an adjective or adverb from those in the box to complete the following sentences. Notice that not all the words will be used and more than one may fit each space.

When writing a descriptive article, use a variety of adjectives and adverbs to make the article vivid and interesting for the reader.

ADJECTIVES	ADVERBS
tasty	beautifully
heavy	easily
amazing	immediately
huge	instantly
breathtaking	happily
spicy	quietly
sudden	fortunately
magical	finally
thrilling	quickly
isolated	thankfully

- The _____ rain poured down on us, _____ soaking us to the bone.
- We were _____ floating on the surface of the sea when a(n) _____ wave nearly drowned us.
- The food was _____ and we _____ ate it all.
- The mountains were just _____ and, that night, after breathing in all that fresh air, we slept _____.
- We got off the aeroplane _____ still not believing we had almost crashed. It was the start of a(n) _____ holiday.

One more thing you can do is to write as if your reader is right in front of you. This can be done by using rhetorical questions and addressing your reader in the second person. Look at the box with useful expressions and use some of them in your own writing task.

- Have you ever...?
Can you imagine...?
Why not consider...?
If you enjoy / want / like / miss..., you can...
For those who enjoy / want / like / miss..., the... is perfect / ideal / recommended.
Take a walk / ride / bus to...
One thing you mustn't miss is...
Make time to visit / see / experience...

F. Read the rubric below and write an article (140-190 words).

You have seen this announcement on the website of a travel agency.

Tell us about the most interesting destination you've been to. Why was it exciting and how did it make you feel? The best article voted by our online readers will win two return tickets to a destination of your choice.

PLAN

When writing a descriptive article, follow the plan below.

TITLE
Think of an interesting title.

INTRODUCTION
Identify the place you're going to write about, where it is and why it's special enough for you to write about it.

MAIN PART (2-3 paragraphs)
Describe three things: the place (scenery), things to see (sights) and things to do (entertainment).

Describe a funny, frightening, amazing or interesting incident and how it made you feel.

CONCLUSION
Sum up your impression of the place by noting its most positive elements and recommend it to your readers.

useful guidance enabling students to develop their writing skills

When writing a descriptive article, you should:

- try to attract the reader's attention and interest.
- use a catchy title.
- don't overgeneralise: give examples and describe real incidents to make the article interesting.
- use lively language (adjectives and adverbs, questions, a variety of vocabulary and syntax).
