A terrible holiday experience

You are somewhere on holiday but you are not having fun because everything is going wrong, e.g. the hotel is dirty, the weather is horrible, somebody stole your bag, etc. Send a postcard to your family describing the situation.

POSTCARD

LOCAL POST

JUL 2012

POST

The postcard is a rectangular sheet of paper with a decorative border of red, green, and blue diagonal stripes. It features a large area on the left for writing, with several horizontal lines. On the right side, there is a designated area for an address, starting with 'To:' and followed by several horizontal lines. In the top right corner, there is a postage stamp area containing a pink hibiscus flower, a circular postmark with the date 'JUL 2012', and the words 'LOCAL POST' and 'POST'.
